Dear Len:

I am enclosing a photostatic copy of my July 8, 1966 letter to Gordon Petersen of the Civil Service Commission dealing with the question of custodial care. I sent copies of this letter to all of our inforce Government groups but evidently your copy went astray.

The clarification of our intent, as explained in this letter, will not apply to any current claims on which ~~we~~ may be payable for custodial care. The only claims that would be involved would be future claims.

I would appreciate it if you would review this letter and if you are agreeable, we will add a custodial care exclusion to your new 1967 brochure.

The groups that have agreed (and they are all except G.E.B.A.) will have custodial care shown in their brochure by simply including the wording "custodial care" in the exclusions section of the brochure. Mr. Petersen does not feel it necessary to repeat the entire exclusion as it is set forth in the two government-wide brochures.

Sincerely,

Norm
